Pastoral Thoughts

OLOS Capital Campaign 2021

We must strive for perfection in all we love to leave no doubt of our commitment!

Blessings my sisters and brothers,

Today's Gospel is again a familiar story. A young man wishing to achieve salvation questions Jesus about what more if anything he must do to secure his place in heaven.

Jesus, who can see into his heart knows he is a man who is trying to live a proper life, but he still has an attachment to material things. For when told he must "sell all his possessions and give it to the poor", it is too much for him.

Throughout our day, we too are given opportunities to display acts of kindness to those we work and live with. But is there a line upon which our kindness will not venture beyond. Do we have our limits due to pride, greed, for the fear of losing a possession we could really live without?

We must ask ourselves what are our limits of compassion, patience, prejudices, and pride? Where do we draw the line that we will not cross? Christ encourages us to have the faith and fortitude to remove those barriers and comfort those in need. It is a difficult step to take but a beneficial one, for when we remove the barriers in our lives that keep us from truly following Christ – then and only then will we receive salvation.

Peace & Love

Capital Campaign Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father, you have Blessed us with this treasure here on earth, which bears the name of your Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Sorrows.

You have entrusted to our care the stewardship, growth, and expansion of your kingdom here on earth.

Bless us as we pledge and show our gratitude by sacrificing our time, talent, and treasures to renovate Our Lady of Sorrows, preserving Our Church, Our City, Our Future.

Father, nothing is built, renovated, or sustained without your blessing.

Please guide us and bless us in this effort as we work in your vineyard to strengthen your church.

We pray this through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen
