OLOS Capital Campaign 2021

*We must strive for perfection in all we love to leave no doubt of our commitment!
Support our Campaign to sustain our Church, Our City, Our Future!*

Greetings fellow parishioners,

I hope you are navigating the changing seasons well. Here at the parish, we are staying busy and gearing up for a busy fall. There will be many opportunities to strengthen your faith and fellowship with others. Please listen to the announcements and read the bulletin for these wonderful offerings.

Today is the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary time, and it gives us a strong message about faith in both our first reading and our Gospel. We see the power of faith being exhibited by the two widows mentioned in the humblest way.

In both instances they offer all they have – asking nothing in return. These two instances confirm what Jesus answered last week about what is the most important commandment “to Love your God with all your heart and to love your neighbor as yourself.”

Far too often we forget the second part of Christ’s answer and have little patience with those who need a smile or a hand up in times of need. But as we approach advent, we will be bombarded with the needs of so many social agencies because of the great need. Please be prayerful in your responses and be compassionate in your considerations of others.

Pax et Bonum
