Pastoral Thoughts

Greetings Brothers and Sister in Christ,

Last weekend a wonderful group from our parish carried the spirit of the Gospel out into the world by volunteering at Harvesters to help feed those less fortunate.

They were a diverse group in age, gender, and occupation, but united in doing what is right. It is these small acts of kindness from our parishioners that make Our Lady of Sorrows the special place it is. By coming together, we build our community and do our part of improving our society and work on bringing a little bit of Gods kingdom to those in need.

Also, this is the last week to sign up for our wine tasting – a fun night of socializing and its all at no cost. Be the expert at your next outing with all the information you will learn about the varieties of wines.

Continue to be safe.

*Blessings,
Dcn Tyrone*

RETREAT: THE OLD, THE SICK, AND THOSE OF LITTLE UNDERSTANDING IN THE RULE OF ST. BENEDICT

February 11-13

Retreat Leader: Brother Thomas Sullivan, OSB

Mahatma Gandhi once famously stated: “The true measure of any society can be found in how it treats its most vulnerable members.” This measure may be taken not only of nations but of monastic rules as well. Our study of “The Old, the Sick, and those of Little Understanding in the Rule of Benedict” provides us with a “true measure” of how any society, including contemporary societies, could and should act toward its vulnerable members.

Catholic Charities Emergency Assistance Fund

Fr. Bob Stone from Nativity of Mary in Independence, MO-

I met Larry the first time he visited Nativity for Sunday Mass. I was impressed that he was able to navigate the bus system and get to our parish. I am not confident I could have done that, and I don't rely on a motorized wheelchair like he did!

Larry was personable and always paused for a brief conversation with me and other parishioners before going into church. He connected easily with people, and soon had a "regular spot" in the pew with people who considered him a friend.

I'll never forget the day he came in with a serious look on his face. He pulled a letter out of his pocket to share with me and I was alarmed to see that it was an eviction notice. I was even more alarmed to see that the eviction date was only two weeks away. I just couldn't accept the prospect of this gentleman – who was my parishioner – winding up on the street.
