Pastoral Thoughts

Welcome to the 2nd week of Lent

Our Gospel taken from Luke today gives us a glimpse of Christ divinity and the future of Glory promised with His resurrection for all humanity.

Jesus understands the weakness of humanity and that of His disciples. So, He gives them something to grasp on to, to help secure their faith as He approaches His passion and crucifixion which will jar them, but it is also giving them a glimpse of the glory they can expect for themselves.

That is why it is import for us to experience this as well. For as the Gospel says, “Lord, it is good for us to be here”; we too should show our gratitude for being present – for the Words of Christ transcend all time and space so we too can experience the glory shared with the apostles.

Life is difficult in so many ways and it can be easy to slip into an abyss as we go through our trials, but if we have something to guide us, we too will handle the storm like a ship’s captain with his mariner’s compass.

So, this lent, let us allow Christ to be our compass and lead through our lives to our heavenly home.

Blessings,

Dcn Tyrone

Prayer for Our Lady of Sorrows Parish

O sorrowful Mother, I turn to you in total trust.
you suffered the sharpest pains in life,
watching your Son die upon the Cross,
and yet you remained by Him to the end.

Look with favor upon me, a poor sinner, and obtain for me from your Son all the graces I need to endure the sufferings God allows me to face.

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known,
that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly to you O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother. To you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. Despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, here and answer me.

Amen

Catholic Charities News

We are here to help- 4 out of 10 Missouri families fear eviction or foreclosure. It's hard to think about anything else when there is no food in the kitchen, the rent is overdue and you've received a cutoff notice from the utility company. Contact us as soon as possible. An eviction on your record could keep you out of many assistance programs. Catholic Charities can help make sense of it.
