Pastoral Thoughts

Happy Father's Day!

We not only celebrate the Word of God today, but we also recognize those who have had an impact on our lives – Our Fathers. Whether they are our biological fathers, stepfathers or a single parent that has had to assume both roles – they guide us through life and impact how we will navigate the world.

We remember the sacrifices they made so that we could enjoy the gifts of childhood. They provide out of Love and give us all we need – especially their time.

So today say thanks to those who played an important role in your lives and recall those special memories today when you pray.

Are you afraid of the storm?

Our Gospel relates a powerful message today, that it will not always be smooth sailing just because you are a Christian, rather you may face trials of all types in our lives. The early Christians had to face this reality in a really frightening way. They were persecuted in Jerusalem and Rome for following their faith, something we tend to take for granted these days.

Just like the apostles in times of trouble we too run to Jesus and ask, “don’t you care?” We all experience times when we feel like we are going to drown in a flood of troubles that seem to all come at once, but if we sit back and pray our Lord will calm the winds and waves of our despair.

Regardless of where you are from, your occupation, your family, your marital status, your personal history, your age, your background, your race, your ethnicity, your political affiliation, your religion, your gender, or your gender identification, we are happy you are here with us today to worship! We invite you to learn more about our parish and its activities by contacting our office, website or simply by mingling with our parishioners after mass.

We must have faith not only when the sailing is smooth, but more importantly when the sea's waves get rough and threaten to capsizes us, we must learn to turn towards Christ and not away.

Jonah is reminder in our first reading of this as well, when God reminds him who sets the limits on the storms and has the power to calm them. We are so used to trying to figure out things for ourselves, believing that we can overcome any situation. So, I can be distressing to us when we realize so much is out of our control, and we need to Trust in Christ.

Blessings

Catholic Charities News

This weekend we celebrate fathers, stepfathers, grandfathers, foster fathers, adopted fathers, and father figures throughout the Kansas City-St. Joseph Diocese and the country. We know that it takes a very special person to step into a father's role. As we celebrate the character traits that make each of these men so exceptional, we ask for the intercession of St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, and recognize the sacrifices he made to play a role in our salvation.

At Catholic Charities, our caring and dedicated staff and case managers are available to support families in need with multiple services. For more information on how we might be able to assist you or someone you know, contact Sam Womack, Director of Children and Family Services at swomack@ccharities.com or 816-659-8279.
