Pastoral Thoughts

You are called

Today we hear about a prophet. The prophet Amos was an ordinary man who God called to prophesize, and he experiences the wrath of Amaziah the priest.

Amos explains that he was called by God from the fields where he was tending to the Flock to relay Gods wants and commands and that he has no choice but to follow His request.

Our Father knows us better than we know ourselves and what we can accomplish with His Grace. For we are all called to be prophets in the world by our baptisms and never be afraid to have responses readily on our lips when we converse with someone.

How often do we say God Bless you to someone, or say the Lord is leading me, or even cross ourselves when we set down in public to eat a meal? These are all simple things, but they display our faith and afford others to inquire about it.

St. Peter said, "always be ready to give a reason for the Hope that is in you." For you do not need to be versed in deep theological philosophies; you only need to display and voice your joy in having Christ in your life. A silent and hidden faith does not help anyone – especially yourself. So remember to break out of your shyness and live the life you are called to.

Many Blessings
Dcn Tyrone

Catholic Charities SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

As we continue to struggle with the backlash of the pandemic, many families throughout our diocese will not have the means to provide for their children's back to school supplies.

Often, we take for granted the ability to afford things such as crayons and pencils when there are others who are wondering where their next meal will come from. Catholic Charities' KCSJ assists many of these families each year with school supplies.

We are collecting backpacks and other essential supplies to offer to schools in the lowest income areas of the KCSJ Diocese. This year's tack-free school supply shopping in Missouri runs from August 6-8.

For more information or to give a gift of a backpack filled with supplies, please contact Nancy Butters, Parish outreach Manager at nbutters@ccharities.com or 816.659.8266
