Pastoral Thoughts

Blessing my brothers and sisters,

Today we hear a crucial point that is often overlooked in our gospel, "And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment."

For it is the faith, prayers, and hope of people that assisted in curing the man. The man stands for all of us in this story, because we all need the assistance of other Christians in our lives. We need the fellowship that only comes from a faith-community, nonjudgmental and sincere.

Christ did not withhold His teaching from anyone but encouraged the groups to come and gather as one to listen to His message. The strength and power of the whole is something that has always been on display since the beginning of the church, and that cohesiveness would not only change an empire but the world.

For as we prepare to begin a capital campaign that is far overdue, let us reflect on what a church community is. It is more than a mere building, but rather a family that takes ownership. It is a family that is involved in God's work, both inside and outside of the parish. It is friendships and relationships, that build a strong community, which are developed by having a joint vision, and mission and much more.

So, as we move forward as a united, loving faith community with our plans to restore this house of God to its just place, I ask for all your prayers that our Heavenly Father joins us in this important effort as we honor Him here on earth, and restore this hour named for His Blessed Mother.

Many Blessings, ~Dcn Tyrone

We can use assistance with the following:

- Help with set-up and tear down of tables and chairs . 4pm -5pm or 7pm-8pm
- Trash collection from the bins, and take to dumpster once every ½ hour (will be split into shifts)
- Someone to assist the grill master 5:30 - 6:30pm

There will be a sign-up sheet at the back of the church or you can call the office to sign up for one of these spots. It is only with your assistance that we can have a wonderful event. To call the office 816.421.2112

Those who have donated items for the picnic, please start to bring these in to the church over the next week. If you'd please, start to drop the items in the Sacristy, when you attend Mass next weekend, or call the office to make arrangements to drop them off during the next week to ten days, so that we have everything here by September 9th.

First Friday Devotional

We have started our First Friday Devotional to Our Lady of Sorrows. Please join us next month, October 1, at Noon for our ongoing First Friday Devotion.

Missionary Plan of Cooperation Collection

Well we missed taking up the second collection for the Missionary Plan of Cooperation last weekend. We will take this collection up today. The mission it supports is Hands Together. Thank you for your support of this mission. All monies collected will be forward to the diocese for distribution.

Every year Hands Together takes part in the Missionary Cooperative Plan at parishes across the country. Hands Together also coordinates and conducts appeals on behalf of projects and ministries in Gonaives and Cap Haitien, Haiti, as well as HT's ministry in Port-au-Prince. All of the funds raised go directly to the work of helping the poor through feeding programs, health/medical care, education, maintenance/repair of structures, and reaching the poor with the love of Christ in the ministry designated for the appeal.

Please visit their website at www.handstogether.org for more information.

Food Insecurity

Food means a lot to us. We carefully prepare it, and make special treats to give as gifts to friends to show our affection. If we have the right food, in the right quantity, we are healthy and full of life. Not enough food, and our physical condition starts to slip. This is what makes food insecurity such a consuming aspect of poverty.

Catholic Charities food pantry helps stabilize food insecurity for hundreds of families.

To learn more about our pantry services, or make a donation to support this work contact Jessica Gant, Food Pantry Manager, jgant@ccharities.com or 816-882-4781.
